

Appendix 4: Acknowledgements

There are numerous people who helped myself and Lorna throughout this project, for which we are extremely grateful for. I would especially like to thank the following:

- The BVA Overseas Group
- The Pathological Society
- The Zebra Foundation
- The Mary Euphrasia, Sir Bartle Frere & Worts Travel Award, University of Cambridge
- Professor John and Margaret Cooper, Cambridge University
- Professor Alun Williams, Cambridge University
- Dr Sheelagh Lloyd and assistant Reighna Stoakes, Cambridge University
- Professor Wendi Bailey, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine
- Professor Kanyari and Dr Merci Akinyi and all the people in the Diagnostics laboratory and schistosomosis laboratory at the Institute of Primate Research, Karen, Nairobi.
- Kenyan Wildlife Services, especially Bernard Ogwoka and Soita Chimatwa
- Mr. Justus Macau and everyone at Centre of Microbiology Research, Kwale hospital
- Curio guesthouse, Kwale Town
- Anne De Souza, friend at the coast
- Arbury Road Veterinary Practice, Cambridgeshire