

Dr H el ene Klein - veterinary administrator, European Commission (Brussels)

Speaker; Pets and politics. Friday 25 September, 16.00-17.00

H el ene qualified from the national veterinary school in Lyon (France) in 1990 and from the national school of veterinary services in Maisons-Alfort (France) in 1991.

She served a decade as a veterinary inspector successively in food safety and animal health sectors in Normandy (Alen on-Orne) before joining the European Commission in 2002 as a veterinary administrator.

She is the official responsible for Regulation (EC) No 998/2003 ("the pet Regulation") in the Animal Health and Standing Committee Unit of DG Health and Consumers.