

Prof. Paul Reiter - Professor of Medical Entomology, Insects and Infectious Disease Unit, Institut Pasteur

Speaker; Vector-Bourne Disease in Europe . Friday 25 September, 11.00- 12.00

Paul Reiter is an entomologist with a special interest in the epidemiology and control of mosquito-borne diseases. His work on West Nile virus, dengue, yellow fever and other arboviral diseases has spanned five continents. He is widely regarded as a 'sceptic' in the global warming debate.