

Paul Roger - RCVS Recognised Specialist in Sheep Health and Production

Speaker; Stakeholders' experiences and the way forward. Friday 25 September, 15.00 – 15.30

Paul Roger established a referral practice and consultancy service in farm animal health and production with a particular interest in sheep and their welfare after 25 years in agricultural practice.

He is currently President of the Sheep Veterinary Society. Paul holds the Diploma in Sheep Health and Production, RCVS, and is recognised by the RCVS as a specialist in this area. He has also gained the Certificate in Animal Welfare Science, Ethics and Law, RCVS.