Unless you have already supplied us with revised wages and turnover figures (as appropriate) the premium for renewal of your Public/Products Liability cover has been revised to reflect variations in the Average Wages and Salaries and Producer Price Indices since last renewal date.

If there have been any changes in your wages payments and/or turnover since last renewal date you should provide us with up to date figures to enable your premium to be re-calculated.

If you have provided revised figures the premium required has been calculated using those figures.
